

EDITORIAL NOTES.

They are having real war in South Africa, and no mistake.

General Leonard Wood has been assigned as military commander of Cuba and governor of the island.

Brooklyn papers are booming Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff for the vice-presidency next year on the republican ticket.

It is fortunate for Mr. Roberts that the gentlemen after him do not have three wives apiece to urge them on.

The Hon. Bill Goebel is now giving the country an excellent illustration of a man caught in his own (election-law) trap.

Delegate Wilson has introduced his bill for the admission of Arizona as a state. Just hold your breath, now, until it is passed by congress.

Now that Colonel Hare is foremost in the hunt after Aguinaldo, he ought to be able to catch up to him, if there is any virtue in a name.

The sugar crop for 1919-1920, it is estimated, will amount to about 8,000,000 tons, of which the United States will consume one-fourth.

We wish the Manila crowd would let us know what was done with Mrs. Aguinaldo's wardrobe. Not necessarily for publication but merely as an evidence of good faith.

If there is anything in the contention of the democrats that an administration cannot produce good or bad times, what excuse have they to offer for the candidacy of Mr. Bryan?

The friends of Mr. Macrum, recent consul at Pretoria, says that the gentleman is coming home to stop the war between the Boers and British.

Mabini, said to be the head and front of the Philippine insurrection, has been captured. Aguinaldo has been only a figure-head manipulated by Mabini.

Secretary Gage has decided to anticipate the January interest on the United States bonds outstanding. The interest amounts to $5,500,000 and payment was commenced today, December 15.

Governor Poynter, of Nebraska, has appointed ex-Senator Allen to fill the senatorial vacancy caused by the death of Senator-elect Hayward. Senator Quay can probably give Mr. Allen a "poynter" on the subject of gubernatorial appointments of senators.

Senator Pettigrew introduced a resolution in the senate the other day intended to give comfort to the Filipinos. It asked for information as to whether the flag of the Philippine republic had ever been saluted by the American forces in the Philippines. It was promptly tabled by a vote of 42 to 20.

Former Senator Edmunds will appear before the senate committee to argue against the seating of Mr. Quay. When he does so, Senator Chandler will ask him some interesting questions about the case of former Senator Blair of New Hampshire, when Mr. Edmunds took diametrically different ground.

In Europe the habits of those in authority, in connection with the use of stimulants, are subjected to the closest scrutiny. So here has popular criticism become that today abstemiousness constitutes the predominant tone at every one of the royal and imperial courts of the old world.

For the first time in many years New York city is an active competitor for the national political conventions. The business men of that city seem to realize that no city can grow so big that it will not be benefited by advertising; a fact long since realized by those who manage the world's largest business institutions.

Roberts is in good company. Achilles wasted years with the daughters of King Lycomedes; Hercules was the slave of Omphale; Perseus passed some years in slens dandalo; Ulysses yielded a like to Circe, Odysseus and Calypso; and Jason was more or less embarrassed by his various attachments.

Austin, Texas, sends out a report by telegraph of a fight between the Mexican troops and Yaqui Indians which lasted a day and a night. The Mexican troops are said to have numbered 4000. The singular part of the news is that it should travel so many miles over mountains and reach Austin before it could be learned in the near-by towns.

If proof were needed to demonstrate at this late date the kindly heart which beats in the president's breast, the recent decision to appoint the son of the brave Captain Gridley, who died shortly after the victory at Manila, where he was Dewey's flag officer, to a lieutenant in the marines, would be sufficient. His mother's need and his father's courage, as well as this youth's merit, won for him a place with so many another great warrior.

Two joint resolutions have been introduced in the house which are understood to be expressive of the democratic position on the Philippine question. The first declares the intention to reorganize the independence of the Philippines and withdraw our land and sea forces provided the independent government agrees to refund the $20,000,000 paid by the United States to Spain, to give us a suitable naval and coaling station and grant in perpetuity free access to their ports. The other pledges our friendly assistance and to guard them from foreign interference for two years, during which time foreign affairs are to be under American control.

Mr. Bryan owes Bill Goebel a letter of condolence to offset the half-cocked congratulation sent him by the day after election.

Governor Taylor, of Kentucky, owes his seat largely to the cool nerve of Governor Bradley, who ignored the threats of Goebelists.

Bills for the admission of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma will all be grouped together and considered at one session of the committee on territories.

While Arizona has a number of taxless railroads, readers of the Courier would be justified in the conclusion that there is but one, and only one is ever mentioned in that paper.

Senator Mason may or may not find satisfaction in the endorsement of his views, as to the duty of Americans to express sympathy for the Boers by some of the leading demagogues of Nebraska.

With Governor Jones of Arkansas and General John B. Gordon recast graduates from the anti-expansion coop, we pause to hear what the Hon. Hoke Smith of Georgia thinks of the situation.

"The trusts have the judiciary in their grasp" reiterated a populist contemporary. And along came a decision from the United States supreme court knocking out the trust iron pipe trust. Now will that paper send in an apology?

We wonder if the wage-rising epidemic prevalent throughout New England had anything to do with the postponement of Mr. Bryan's contemplated trip to that section.

The advice of the New Hampshire centurion to women who wish to live to pass the century mark—"don't marry before you are 55"—is not likely to be extensively followed.

Charles T. Yerkes, the Chicago capitalist, says the man who speculates in Wall street is an idiot and must lose in the end, and he doubts less knows. Young Rockefeller could give the same advice now.

William S. Taylor was peacefully inaugurated governor of Kentucky on Tuesday, December 12, so that what once gave promise of culminating in a big row has come to a peaceful end. We congratulate Kentucky.

The present house has ten contested seats, all from the south, one from Alabama, three from Kentucky, one from Mississippi, two from North Carolina, one from South Carolina, and two from Virginia.

It is evident that our military officers in the Philippines are not sharers in the fears expressed by some editors, that Aguinaldo will be captured. The only fear of our officers over there is that Aguinaldo will escape capture and make more trouble.

Since the Hon. Josiah Patterson, of Tennessee, was given a place as child park commissioner, he has been tendering his advice to the democratic party of which he is a member, but some democratic contemporaries seem inclined to consign it to the ash heap.

It has been suggested that W. J. Bryan may like to come to the senate in Mr. Hayward's place. He should reflect that only one man (Garfield) has ever been elected from the senate to the presidency, and that he had not taken his seat in that body.

Joe Blackburn is casting suspicious glances Goebelward, and with cause. Goebel will take the son-of-a-bitch quick as a wink, if he can get it. There is still said to be a hope that the republicans and anti-Goebel men can by uniting elect either a republican or a gold democrat, to the senate.

From an article in our contemporary this morning, copied from the Chicago Chronicle, it appears that paper does not like the action of President McKinley in sending troops out to Idaho to prevent the destruction of property. The Federation of Labor at its session in Detroit on Saturday refused to adopt a resolution condemning the president for this action, from which it seems that it takes a different view of the subject from that of the Chronicle.

When asked what the republicans intended to do with the Philippines, Senator Frye replied: First restore peace. Then give them a good government. Second, wages, arouse in the people an ambition to become good citizens, supply them with modern agricultural implements, construct railroads and highways, making access to the sea easy, build school houses, supply teachers, educate them so as to fit them for the exercise of governmental functions, and then trust them with the control of local and municipal affairs. Surely that is a program that any patriotic American can endorse.

The first thing that the next Arizona legislature should do to respect the law conferring judicial powers on juries, which gives them the right not only to determine the guilt or innocence of persons charged with crime, but in certain cases permits them to sentence them, or the same thing, to fix the penalty. The jury system never contemplated that jurors should exercise this prerogative, which is exclusively that of the judges. A great responsibility rests upon a juror to determine the guilt or innocence of an accused person, and the judge who also hears the testimony and who is peculiarly fitted by education in the law is the best judge of the punishment which should be inflicted. It is true that heart-rending cases are sometimes promoted to that position and fail in the performance of their duty, but there are less miscarriages of justice from judges than from juries where twelve men have to agree to a verdict.

It is stated that Andrew Carnegie's donations to public libraries throughout the country now amount to over $300,000,000.

The refusal of the democratic state committee of Utah to endorse Roberts disposed of his claim that the opposition to him was political.

Back in Kansas, the home of the Populist and the new woman, a school superintendent has forbidden his teachers to wear golf skirts. Perhaps he thinks they are an invention of the money devil.

Andrew Carnegie and his manager, H. C. Frick, have had a falling out and the latter will retire as manager of the Carnegie Steel Company. Mr. Frick wanted to join the trust, but Mr. Carnegie opposed it. Mr. Frick also wanted to hold a portion of their product for advanced prices, but Mr. Carnegie contended that immediate returns were better than prospective profits. Mr. Frick still holds a controlling interest in the Frick Coke Company, the largest coke company in the United States.

A Jerome justice of the peace has decided that a saloon is a sacred place, and that the occupants of it may fight, cut and swear and raise all the pandemonium they wish, if no officer has a right to interfere except on invitation of the proprietor of the place. They may be shooting each other down while the "boss" is absent in bed, but before an officer can enter and stop it the proprietor must be hunted up and consulted. Justice courts are great educational institutions, when in the hands of the right parties.

An important step in electric lighting is made known to the state department in a report from United States Consul General Mason at Berlin. He states that a young German professor, after a long course of experiments, has managed to find a substitute for the carbon filament used in the ordinary bulb, light, in the shape of a rod composed of rare fusible earthy oxides similar in composition to those used in making mantles for incandescent gas lights. This rod has the advantage of requiring less than 30 percent of the current demanded by the carbon filament, and besides it affords a perfect light, free from the faults of all other artificial lights and of great value in photography.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., son of the coal oil magnate, took a notion recently to take a turn at sports. After conferring with his papa it was decided that the young man should be put under the tutelage of James R. Keene. Now it so happened that the young man selected leather for his manipulation, and it also happened that his tutor, unknown to the young man, however, had molly leather to sell. The deal was started, and leather went up like a rocket. Mr. Rockefeller, Jr., buying all that was offered. It suddenly came down with a crash, leaving the ambitious young man $5,000,000 wiser and his father with that much less cash.

A Washington paper of recent date contains a lengthy editorial, dilating on the troubles the administration is having over anticipating Aguinaldo's surrender. The paper says that the administration would prefer Aguinaldo's escape to his surrender. It is dollars to doughnuts that the article in question is a pure imagination of the mind of the writer, and that the administration is giving itself no concern whatever as to the disposition of the wily Ag. should he be captured. If it really is, the advice to "cover cover a river until you reach it" would be very appropriate.

A Washington telegram says that Representative Bailey of Texas is ready to protest against General Goebel's admission to congress should he return from Manila and present himself to assume his position as representative from Alabama. Mr. Bailey will contend that Mr. Goebel cannot hold two positions—major-general of volunteers and member of congress—at the same time. Mr. Bailey, it is alleged, has made a canvass of the democratic side and received promises of support from nearly one hundred members. General Goebel would seem from this to be to be turned down by his own party.

Two Murderous Mexicans. A serious shooting affray took place last night in the city of Mexico, resulting in the death of two men. The two brothers named Orozco, after filing up with fighting whisky, went on the war path, and the first man who crossed their path was the first victim. They shot him dead in cold blood, and then started up the street, shooting into space. Seeing a Mexican sitting on a bench, they asked him if he was a bravo. On receiving a negative reply they emptied their guns into his body and left him dead in front of his door. By this time the little camp was thoroughly aroused and every one who could get a gun started out to round up the bloodthirsty Mexicans. When the smoke cleared away one of the Orozcos was dead, with thirteen wounds in his body, and the other was shot through the body in three or four places and was on the point of death. Deputy Sheriff White, who was watching the two, gave service during the excitement, brought the wounded man to the police station and placed him in jail.

President Bent, of the Union Pacific railroad, wants to drive a tunnel through Sherman hill, in Wyoming. It will be seven miles long, and will be the longest of its kind. The project is being undertaken by the engineering firm of the Union Pacific, and will involve an enormous expenditure, but will reduce the mileage.

M. Finley Acker of Philadelphia appeared before the congressional committee on the subject of the establishment of the national board of trade. He advocated the reduction of letter postage to one cent, and the establishment of a cheap parcel post.
